Stephan has had many professional roles in his life: professional basketball player, college basketball coach and trainer, primitive skills survivalist, founding board member of TrueChampion Ministry, and Business Partner and Director of the Socially/Sustainable and Responsible Investments Division at KMF Advisors. STEPHAN SPEAKS OUT

Stephan Kerby's passion is clearly seen in his desire to educate others about financial topics, especially in the area of Socially/Sustainable and Responsible Investing. Whether Stephan speaks to youth or adults, large or small crowds, at companies, churches or schools, he has a way of connecting and engaging with everyone. Stephan has an incredible ability of taking complex (and sometimes "boring") financial concepts and explaining it in a format that is easily understood, and even enjoyed, by individuals from all stages of their investment journey. Stephan reaches people in a way that is down to earth, challenging, and motivating as he feels this is the most effective way to encourage people to take real action. Stephan is a sought-after speaker in many parts of the country. He has spoken in Kentucky, Iowa, Minnesota, New Hampshire, Maine, Ohio, Florida, and Colorado just to name a few. Stephan spent 18 years as an Independent Advisor/RIA before partnering with longtime friend and Founder of KMF Advisors, Brad Davis, to run their Socially/Sustainable and Responsible Investment division.
