Privacy Policy

Steward Partners Investment Solutions considers the privacy of its customers to be of fundamental importance and has established a policy to maintain the privacy of the information that you share with us.

Steward Partners Investment Solutions does not disclose your personal information to third parties, except as described in this policy. Third party disclosures may include sharing such information with non-affiliated companies that perform support services for your account or facilitate your transactions with SPIS, including those that provide professional, legal or accounting advice to SPIS. Non-affiliated companies that assist SPIS in providing services to you are required to maintain the confidentiality of such information to the extent they receive it and to use your personal information only while providing such services and only for the purposes that SPIS dictates.

We may also disclose your personal information to fulfill your instructions, to protect our rights and interests and those of our business partners or pursuant to your express consent. Finally, under limited circumstances, your personal information may be disclosed to third parties as permitted by, or to comply with, applicable laws and regulations; for instance, when responding to a subpoena or similar legal process, to protect against fraud and to otherwise cooperate with law enforcement or regulatory authorities or with organizations such as exchanges and clearinghouses.

You should know that Steward Partners Investment Solutions will not sell your personal information.

We restrict access to your nonpublic personal information to authorized employees. We maintain physical, electronic and procedural safeguards to guard your nonpublic personal information.

As described in this policy, we will from time to time share personal information with affiliated companies. If you would like more information about our privacy policy, please write us at:

What we do?

How does Steward Partners Investment Solutions protect my personal information? To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include cybersecurity, physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards along with secured access to our facilities. We assess current risks to design specific safeguards that protect customer information and have processes in place to deal with information security incidents if they occur.

How does Steward Partners Investment Solutions collect my personal information? We collect your personal information, for example, when you:

- open an account or perform transactions
- pay for your securities transactions or request money be sent to you
- write a check or use your debit card

We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates, or other companies.

Why can't I limit all sharing? Federal law gives you the right to limit only:

- sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes—information about your creditworthiness
- affiliates from using your information to market to you
- sharing for non-affiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing.

What happens when I limit sharing for an account I hold jointly with someone else? Your choices will apply to everyone on your account.
